

BRADFORD COLLEGE

Lecturer Contract of Employment

PERSONNEL DEPARTMENT

THE EMPLOYER : Bradford College
 Great Horton Road
 Bradford
 West Yorkshire
 BD7 1AY

THE EMPLOYEE : «Title» «First_Name» «Second_Name» «Surname»
 «Address_Line_1»
 «Address_Line_2»
 «Address_Line_3»
 «Address_Line_4»
 «Post_Code»

DATE OF ISSUE: <Insert Date>

1. Date of Commencement

1.1 Your employment commenced on «Effective_Date»

1.2 Your period of continuous employment will begin/began on «Continuous_Service_Date»

[EITHER]

It includes your continuous employment with [•]. [Note: This provision should be used in the case of an employee whose employment began before 1st April 1993 and should identify the local education authority which maintained the institution before that date. This provision should also be used for a promotee within the College who is moving into a new role but with no break in continuous service.]

[OR]

No employment with a previous employer counts as part of your period of continuous employment with the Corporation. [Note: This provision should be inserted in the case of a new-starter who is first employed at the institution on or after 1st April 1993. An employee in this position will not be able to count previous employment with a local education authority or with another further education corporation as part of his or her continuous employment with the Corporation for any purposes other than the calculation of statutory redundancy pay.]

- 1.3 You may however count any previous continuous local government service, or service with an organisation listed in the Redundancy Payments (Local Government) (Modification) Order, as part of your continuous employment with the Corporation for redundancy pay purposes.

2. Duties

- 2.1 You will be employed as Lecturer «Post_Name» in which capacity you will be required to perform such duties consistent with your position as may from time to time be assigned to you.

- 2.2 Your duties are those specified within your job description and will include but will not be limited to:

Teaching, tutorials, training, guidance, counselling, admissions, outreach, visiting students on/and organising placements, assessment, induction programmes, invigilation, distance learning/student liaison, study visits, class/unit reviews, employer liaison, personal and pastoral support, preparation, marking, employer liaison, course review, examination boards, reading and professional updating, course management, internal verification, feedback to students, curriculum development, staff development, management and administration, publicity/marketing, market research, research and consultancy

- 2.3 If you are acting, for example, as unit leader, module leader, year tutor, lead internal verifier, course tutor, you may be called upon to oversee, support, co-ordinate or appraise other members of the teaching staff of the College.

2.4 Individual Work Programmes

Your programme of activity will be determined by your line manager in consultation with you. The above list of duties is not exclusive.

Individual work programmes will be drawn up so as to ensure that you are not required to undertake an excessive workload, for instance, with regard to teaching group sizes, settings, and student contact time.

- 2.5 You may be required in pursuance of your duties to perform services not only for the Corporation but also for any Subsidiary. The Corporation will remain your employer.
- 2.6 You are expected to work flexibly and efficiently, to maintain the highest professional standards and to promote and implement the policies of the Corporation.
- 2.7 You will be expected to comply with any rules and regulations which the Corporation may from time to time issue to ensure the efficient operation of its business and the welfare and interests of its students and employees.

3. Appraisal and Development

You will be required to participate in the staff appraisal scheme approved by the Corporation and participate in reasonable arrangements for your further training and development.

4. Individual Professional Development (IPD)

You are required to complete a minimum of 70 hours individual professional development each year, between 1st September and 31st August, pro rata for fractional staff.

You will be entitled to receive your normal remuneration for all 70 hours individual professional development.

The timing of all individual professional development, and, subject to the Academic Workload Allocation Model, learning outcomes and objectives are subject to the prior agreement of your line manager. Individual professional development plans are required to be planned and agreed before 30 November each year.

You must maintain a record of all individual professional development you have undertaken on the staff development database.

Failure to comply with these requirements may lead to disciplinary action. Full details of the College's policy in relation to Individual Professional Development will be communicated to you.

5. Requirement for Teaching Qualification

All lecturers (FE and HE) are required to hold or obtain a teaching qualification. The type of qualification required depends on a number of factors, including the date on which employment commenced and the type of post which is held. In the event that you fail to secure the requisite qualifications within the period specified, maximum of 5 years,, the Corporation may have no alternative but to terminate your employment and to this end the Corporation reserves the right notwithstanding any other provisions of this contract, to terminate your employment by giving notice in accordance with clause xx

6. Working Hours

6.1 You will be expected to work such hours as are reasonably necessary for the proper performance of your duties and responsibilities, with a normal working week of 35 hours per week to be worked between Monday and Friday. Some elements of your contractual hours may be worked off site subject to agreement by your manager. You may, from time to time, be required to work on a Saturday or Sunday. Weekend working will normally be by agreement and planned in advance. However, there may be exceptional unforeseen short-term needs. College management will give reasonable notice and seek suitable volunteers on these occasions. Only if there are no suitable volunteers will you be required to work, and time off in lieu will be given during your normal working week.

The days upon and the times at which you are required to work will be in accordance with the Academic Workload Allocation Model a copy of which will be supplied to you. Such timetables will be determined at the absolute discretion of the College

7. Holiday

You are entitled to 39 days paid annual leave in each holiday year (being the period from 1st September to 31st August).

- 7.1 You will be entitled to receive your normal remuneration for all annual leave and the 11 Bank and Public Holidays. You will be required to use up to 3 days of your holiday entitlement on days at Christmas when the Corporation's activities are suspended in the interests of efficiency.

You are entitled to the following 11 Public and Statutory Bank holidays:

New Years Day
Good Friday
Easter Monday
Easter Tuesday
Early May Bank Holiday
Spring Bank Holiday Monday
Spring Bank Holiday Tuesday
Summer Bank Holiday Monday
Summer Bank Holiday Tuesday
Christmas Day
Boxing Day

You may sometimes be required to work on the Statutory Bank Holiday and Public Holiday, in which case you will be given time off in lieu.

- 7.2 The timing of all holiday is subject to the agreement of your line manager who will recognise your domestic circumstances in so far as is possible within the exigencies of the provision of service. Outline holiday schedules for individual staff are required to be planned before 30 November in any holiday year.

- 7.4 In the holiday year in which your employment commences or terminates, your holiday entitlement will accrue on a pro-rata basis for each complete month of service; that is 39/12 days (pro rata for fractional appointments). If, on the termination of your employment, you have exceeded your accrued holiday entitlement, the Corporation will be entitled to deduct the excess from any sums due to you, including payments of salary. If, on the other hand, you have any unused holiday entitlement, the Corporation may require you to take it during your notice period or may alternatively pay you the appropriate sum in lieu thereof. (For the purposes of calculating deductions and additional payments as a result of exceeded or unused holidays, one day's holiday will have the value of 1/365 of your annual salary).

- 7.5 Holiday entitlement for one holiday year cannot be taken in subsequent holiday years unless otherwise agreed by the Director of Human Resources. Failure to take holiday entitlement in the appropriate holiday year will lead to forfeiture of holiday not taken without any right to payment in lieu thereof.

8. Place of Work

- 8.1 Your principal place of work will initially be the Corporation's premises at «Location» for the Department of «Organisation_Unit». However, you may be required to work at any premises which the Corporation currently has or may subsequently acquire or at any premises at which it may from time to time provide services. For any such requirement consultation will take place and you will be given reasonable notice
- 8.2 As part of your duties, you may be required to travel either within the United Kingdom or outside it. Such travel may include attendance at conferences or seminars for the purposes of maintaining and updating your professional skills and the supervision of students on visits, work placements, marketing or representing the College/Corporation.

9. Salary

Your initial salary will be «Pay_Amount» per annum. It is payable monthly in arrears by direct credit transfer on or about the 26th of each month. Your salary will be reviewed annually in accordance with Corporation's review policy.

10. Expenses

Expenses which you incur in the proper performance of your duties will be reimbursed by the Corporation providing that they have been approved in advance by your line manager.

11. Pension

You are entitled to participate in the Teachers' Pension ("TP") subject to its terms and conditions from time to time in force. The TP is contracted out of the State Second Pension Scheme. It follows that, if you choose to participate in it, a contracting out certificate under the Pensions Act 1993 will be in force in respect of your employment. Should you choose not to join the TP, you must participate in the State Pension Scheme or take out a personal pension.

12. Sickness MOVE FROM CURRENT ACADEMIC SCHEME TO SUPPORT STAFF SICK PAY SCHEME

12.1 If you are absent from work due to sickness or injury, you will be eligible to receive sick pay in accordance with the Corporation's Sickness Policy. Full details of the Corporation's Sickness Policy and the procedures with which you must comply are available on the Intranet or from Personnel. Policies will be reviewed and updated periodically and new policies will be developed from time to time following consultation with recognised trade unions. You are responsible for familiarising yourself with policies, keeping up to date with changes and adhering to them.

12.2 The payment of sick pay is subject to your compliance with the Corporation's rules for the notification and verification of sickness absence, which are set out in the Sickness Policy.

The employee will be expected to attend appointments with Occupational Health and, by mutual agreement, may be referred to specialist medical professionals for further advice and to the disclosure of the report thereafter. In the event that the employee refuses such an examination or disclosure of any report, they will be asked to give adequate and satisfactory reasons. If none are forthcoming, the College reserves the right to stop paying occupational sick pay and may have to take a decision about their continued employment without the benefit of up to date medical information.

13. Maternity Leave

If you become pregnant, you may be eligible to take maternity leave and may qualify for maternity pay. Full details of the Corporation's Maternity Policy and the procedures with which you must comply in order to exercise your rights under it are available on the Intranet or from Personnel. Policies will be reviewed and updated periodically and new policies will be developed from time to time following consultation with recognised trade unions. You are responsible for familiarising yourself with policies, keeping up to date with changes and adhering to them.

Adoption Leave

If you adopt a child, you may be eligible to take adoption leave and receive adoption pay. Full details of the Corporation's Adoption Policy and the procedures with which you must comply in order to exercise your rights under it are available on the Intranet or from Personnel. Policies will be reviewed and updated periodically and new policies will be developed from time to time following consultation with recognised trade unions. You are responsible for familiarising yourself with policies, keeping up to date with changes and adhering to them.

Paternity Leave

Where your Spouse/Partner becomes pregnant, you may be eligible to take paternity leave and receive paternity pay. Full details of the Corporation's Paternity Leave Policy and the procedures with which you must comply in order to exercise your rights under it are available on the Intranet or from Personnel. Policies will be reviewed and updated periodically and new policies will be developed from time to time following consultation with recognised trade unions. You are responsible for familiarising yourself with policies, keeping up to date with changes and adhering to them.

Parental Leave

You may be entitled to take parental leave in accordance with the Maternity and Parental Leave Regulations 1999, or alternatively in accordance with any policy or procedure on this subject which has been adopted by the College. Further details in respect of parental leave are available on the Intranet or from Personnel. Policies will be reviewed and updated periodically and new policies will be developed from time to time following consultation with recognised trade unions. You are responsible for familiarising yourself with policies, keeping up to date with changes and adhering to them.

14. Exclusivity of Service

14.1 You are required to devote your full-time attention and abilities to your duties during your working hours and to act in the best interests of the Corporation at all times. Accordingly, you must not, without the written consent of the Chief Executive, undertake any employment or engagement which you believe might interfere with the performance of your duties or conflict with the interests of the Corporation.

14.2 It follows that, regardless of whether you are employed on a full-time or a part-time contract, you are required to notify the Chief Executive of any employment or engagement, whether full-time or part-time, which you intend to undertake whilst in the employment of the Corporation (including any such employment or engagement which commenced before your employment under this contract). The Chief Executive will then notify you within 10 working days whether such employment or engagement is prohibited by Paragraph xx above.

15. Confidentiality

15.1 You shall not either during your employment (except in the proper performance of your duties), nor at any time after its termination, use for your own purposes (or for any purposes other than those of the Corporation) or divulge to any person, corporation, company or other organisation whatsoever any confidential information belonging to the Corporation or to any Subsidiary or relating to its or their affairs or dealings which may come to your knowledge during your employment. This restriction shall cease to apply to any information or knowledge which may come into the public domain after the termination of your employment, other than as a result of unauthorised disclosure by you or by any third party.

15.2 Confidential information shall include (but shall not be limited to) the following:

- (a) information concerning the services offered or provided by the Corporation or any Subsidiary including the names of any persons, companies or other organisations to whom such services are provided, their requirements and the terms upon which services are provided to them (save that such information shall not be regarded as confidential once it has been published in any prospectus or other document which is available to members of the public);

- (b) the Corporation's marketing strategies and business plans or those of any Subsidiary;
- (c) any information relating to a proposed reorganisation, expansion or contraction of the Corporation's activities (or those of any Subsidiary) including any such proposal which also involves the activities of any other corporation or organisation;
- (d) financial information relating to the Corporation or any Subsidiary (save to the extent that such information is included in published audited accounts);
- (e) details of employees of the Corporation or any Subsidiary, the remuneration and other benefits paid to them and their experience, skills and aptitudes;
- (f) any information which you have been told is confidential or which you might reasonably expect to be confidential;
- (g) any information which has been given to the Corporation or any Subsidiary in confidence by students or other persons, companies or organisations.

15.3 Notwithstanding the above, the Corporation affirms that academic staff have freedom within the law to question and test received wisdom relating to academic matters, and to put forward new ideas and controversial or unpopular opinions about academic matters without placing themselves in jeopardy of losing the jobs and privileges they have at the Corporation.

15.4 All records, documents and other papers (together with any copies or extracts thereof) made or acquired by you in the course of your employment shall be the property of the Corporation and must be returned to it on the termination of your employment.

15.5 Materials to Support Teaching - The Corporation recognises that lecturers have the right to retain, on leaving the Corporation's employment, personal copies of material made in the course of their employment with the Corporation which are required by them to pursue their profession as lecturers.

Details of the Corporations Public Interest Disclosure Procedure applicable to you are available on the College intranet or from the Clerk to The Corporation. This procedure may be varied by the Corporation from time to time. Nothing in this contract is intended to prejudice your rights under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998.

Any request received by you under the Freedom of Information Act will be forwarded to the Clerk to The Corporation for consideration. Under no circumstances should you respond to such a request.

17. Grievances

If you have a grievance relating to your employment, you are entitled to invoke the Grievance Procedure which is available on the College Intranet or from the Personnel Department. The Grievance Procedure may be varied by the Corporation from time to time, after consultation with its recognised Trade Unions.

18. Disciplinary Procedure

The Corporation expects reasonable standards of performance and conduct from its employees. Details of its Disciplinary Policy and Rules Relating to the Conduct of Staff are available on the College Intranet or from the Personnel Department. The Disciplinary Policy may be varied by the Corporation from time to time, after consultation with its recognised Trade Unions.

19. Capability Procedure

The Corporation expects reasonable standards of performance from its employees. Details of its Capability Policy are available on the College Intranet or from the Personnel Department. The Policy may be varied by the Corporation from time to time, after consultation with its recognised Trade Unions.

20. Probationary Period

(This Clause only applies to people newly appointed to the service of the Corporation or people who have not satisfactorily completed 12 months service with the Corporation immediately prior to this appointment.)

The first 12 months of your employment will be a probationary period, during which your suitability for the position to which you have been appointed will be assessed. The Corporation reserves the right to extend your probationary period if, in its opinion, circumstances so require. During your probationary period, your employment may be terminated either by you or by the Corporation on giving one month's written notice. The Corporation's Disciplinary and Capability Procedures will not apply to you during your probationary period.

21. Overseas Work

It is not envisaged that you will be required to work outside the United Kingdom for more than one month at any one time. If circumstances change so that it becomes necessary, this will be discussed fully with you. Overseas working will normally be by agreement and planned in advance. However, there may be exceptional unforeseen short-term needs. College management will give reasonable notice and seek suitable volunteers on those occasions. Only if there are no suitable volunteers will you be required to work overseas. Your domestic circumstances will be given careful consideration.

22. Collective Agreements

This contract is derived from a memorandum of agreement reached between the Corporation and the recognised trade union. A copy of the Recognition Policy and Agreement is available on the College Intranet or from the Personnel Department.

The Academic Workload Allocation Model is derived from a memorandum of agreement reached between the Corporation and the recognised trade union. A copy is available on the College Intranet or from the Personnel Department.

There are no other Collective Agreements.

23. Termination of Employment

23.1 Your employment is for an indefinite period, terminable on notice or otherwise as set out below.

23.2 You may terminate your employment at any time by giving the Corporation two months' notice in writing.

23.3 After the completion of any probationary period, the Corporation may terminate your employment by giving you in writing whichever is the greater of:

(a) two months' notice; or

(b) one week's notice for each year of service, up to a maximum of twelve weeks' notice.

23.4 The Corporation may terminate your employment without notice or without compensation in lieu of notice if you are guilty of gross or serious misconduct or gross negligence or gross incompetence.

23.5 During any period of notice of termination (whether given by you or the Corporation), the Corporation shall be under no obligation to assign any duties to you and shall be entitled to exclude you from its premises, although this will not affect your right to receive your normal salary and other contractual benefits. If you are required to stay at home during the notice period, clause xx <Exclusivity of Service> shall continue to apply

24. Prior and Subsequent Agreements

24.1 This Contract of Employment and any documents expressly incorporated herein constitute the entire terms and conditions of your employment. They cancel and are in substitution for any previous letters of appointment or contracts of employment and all other agreements and arrangements (whether express, implied or deriving from any collective agreement) relating to your employment by the Corporation.

24.2 Any changes in the terms and conditions of employment applicable to academic staff appointed by the Corporation on the terms and conditions set out herein which may be agreed after the date of this Contract between the Corporation and any trade unions recognised by the Corporation in respect of such staff shall be incorporated automatically into your Contract of Employment.

24.3 Any agreements relating to the terms and conditions of academic staff appointed on the terms and conditions set out herein which are reached after the date of this Contract between any national employers' body of which the Corporation is at the relevant time a member and the trade unions recognised by both that body and the Corporation in respect of such staff shall not affect your Contract of Employment unless they are adopted by the Corporation but shall, if so adopted, be binding on you. The Corporation shall not adopt any such agreement without prior consultation with the recognised trade union.

25. Interpretation

In this contract "Subsidiary" means any company, association, society or other entity directly or indirectly controlled by the College, for which purpose "control" means either ownership of more than 50% of the voting share capital (or equivalent right of ownership) of such company, association, society or other entity or power to direct its policies and management whether by contract, statute or otherwise.

1. Copyright

- 1.1 Subject to Paragraphs 1.2 and 1.3 below, the copyright in all records and documents made by you in the course of your employment shall belong to the Corporation.
- 1.2 For the avoidance of doubt, the copyright in course materials produced by you for the purposes of a course run by the Corporation shall belong to the Corporation.
- 1.3 The copyright in any work or design compiled, edited or otherwise brought into existence by you as a scholarly work for the purposes of furthering your professional career shall belong to you; "scholarly work" includes items such as books, contributions to books, articles and conference papers, and shall be construed in the light of the common understanding of the phrase in further and higher education.

2. Inventions and Patents

- 2.1 The provisions of Sections 39 to 42 of the Patents Act 1977 ("the Patents Act") relating to the ownership of employee inventions and the compensation of employees for certain inventions respectively are acknowledged by the Corporation and by you.

- 2.2 You agree that, by virtue of the nature of your duties and the responsibilities arising from them, you have a special obligation to further the interests of the Corporation within the meaning of Section 39(1)(b) of the Patents Act.
- 2.3 Any invention, development, process, plan, design, formula, specification, programme or other matter or work whatsoever (collectively "the Inventions") made, developed or discovered by you, either alone or in concert, whilst you are employed by the Corporation shall forthwith be disclosed to the Corporation and, subject to Section 39 of the Patents Act, shall belong to and be the absolute property of the Corporation or such Subsidiary as it may designate.
- 2.4 You shall at the request and cost of the Corporation (and notwithstanding the termination of your employment, howsoever arising,) sign and execute all such documents and do all such acts as the Corporation may reasonably require:
 - (a) to apply for and obtain in the sole name of the Corporation alone (unless the Corporation otherwise directs) patent, registered design, or other protection of any nature whatsoever in respect of the Inventions in any country throughout the world and, when so obtained, to renew and maintain the same;
 - (b) to resist any objection or opposition to obtaining, and any petitions or applications for revocation of, any such patent, registered design or other protection; and
 - (c) to bring proceedings for infringement of any such patent, registered design or other protection.
- 2.5 The Corporation shall decide, in its sole discretion, whether and when to apply for patent, registered design or other protection in respect of the Inventions and reserves the right to work any of the Inventions as a secret process in which event you shall observe the obligations relating to confidential information which are contained in Clause xx of this Agreement.

3. Post-termination Restrictions

- 3.1 For the purposes of Paragraph 3.2 below, the following words shall have the following meanings:
 - (a) "Client" shall mean any person, corporation, company or other organisation to whom or which the Corporation supplied services during the 12 months preceding the Termination Date and with whom or which, during such period, you had personal dealings in the course of your employment but shall exclude any such person who was enrolled as a student on a publicly funded course with the Corporation and any such organisation which distributes public funds for education and training purposes;

- (b) "Restricted Services" shall mean any services which are the same as or similar to any services supplied by the Corporation with which your duties were concerned or for which you were responsible during the 12 months immediately preceding the Termination Date;
 - (c) "Termination Date" shall mean the date of termination of your employment.
- 3.2 You hereby undertake that you will not during a period of 12 months immediately following the Termination Date without the prior written consent of the Corporation whether by yourself, through your employees or agents or otherwise howsoever and whether on your own behalf or on behalf of any other person, corporation, company or other organisation, directly or indirectly:
- (a) solicit business from or canvass any Client if such solicitation or canvassing is in respect of Restricted Services;
 - (b) supply Restricted Services to any Client;
 - (c) solicit or induce or endeavour to solicit or induce any person who is on the Termination Date employed by the Corporation in a managerial capacity or as a member of its academic staff to cease working for or providing services to the Corporation, whether or not any such person would thereby commit a breach of contract;
 - (d) employ or otherwise engage in the supply of Restricted Services to any Client any person who is on the Termination Date, or was during the 12 months preceding the Termination Date, employed by the Corporation in a managerial capacity or as a member of its academic staff.
- 3.3 Clause 3.2 shall also apply as though there were substituted for references to "the Corporation" references to each Subsidiary in relation to which you provided services in the course of your duties for the Corporation but so that references in Clause 3.1 to "the Corporation" shall for this purpose be deemed to be replaced by references to the relevant Subsidiary.

Return of College Property

Upon the termination of your employment (for whatever reason) you hereby agree to return to the College all documents, student work, IT equipment, books, office equipment, keys, security passes, credit cards and any other property belonging to the College. This includes all documents and information whether stored electronically or as hard copy.

All College property must be returned no later than your last date of employment with the College. You are also required to return to the College any property that may come into your possession after your employment ends.

It is your responsibility to return College property. You hereby agree that any failure to return such property will entitle the College to withhold the whole or any part of any wages' due to you from the College up to the current market value of the property unreturned. The College reserves the right to issue legal proceedings against you in the event that it is unable to recover, by way of a withholding of salary a sum representing the market value of the property which is unreturned.

2 Duration

The employment shall commence on <insert start date> and, subject to both the probation period and termination provisions, shall continue until terminated in accordance with the provisions contained herein.

8. Deductions

For the purposes of the Employment Rights Act 1996, you hereby authorise the Corporation to deduct from your salary any sums due from you to the Corporation, including any overpayments, loans or advances made to you by the Corporation. In the event of an overpayment of salary, the repayment period will be subject to agreement but usually no greater than 12 months,

Trade Union Membership

You have the right to belong to a trade union of your choice. The following trade union is currently recognised by the Corporation for Academic Staff:

University and College Union (UCU)

Health and Safety

The Corporation recognises and accepts its responsibilities as an employer to ensure, so far as is practicable, the health, safety and welfare of all its employees. A copy of the Health and Safety Policy can be obtained from the College intranet or from the Occupational Health and Safety Department. You are responsible for familiarising yourself with the policy and adhering to the health and safety rules in the workplace.

Restrictions on Smoking

Smoking is not permitted in any part of the premises or campus, including Corporation vehicles or any vehicles being used on College business or entrances at any time, by any person regardless of their status or business with the Corporation. .

Data Protection

The Corporation will from time to time wish to process information about you for reasons related to your employment by the Corporation. You hereby explicitly consent to the Corporation collecting, holding and otherwise processing personal data (including “sensitive personal data”) relating to you. The Corporation will process such data only for legitimate reasons, and will do so in a way which does not unjustifiably prejudice your own interests. Refer to the Data Protection Policy on the College Intranet for further information.

Monitoring of Telecommunications

In accordance with the Corporations policies, the Corporation has the right to monitor any and all aspects of its telephone and computer systems that are made available to you and to monitor, intercept and/or record any communications made by you, including any type of telephone, e-mail or Internet communications, for any purposes authorised under the Telecommunications (Lawful Business Practice) (Interception of Communications) Regulations 2000 and any amending or supplementary legislative or regulatory requirements and you hereby expressly consent to the Corporation doing so. Refer to the IT and Telephony Acceptable Use Policy – Staff on the College Intranet for further information.

Criminal Acts

In the event that you become charged with, receive a caution and/or are convicted of, a criminal act, you will advise the College immediately. Failure to notify the College may result in disciplinary action being commenced against you, which may be up to and including the termination of your employment.

Applicable Law

English law shall apply to this Contract and the parties to this Contract submit to the jurisdiction of the English courts

Equality and Diversity

The Corporation is committed to tackling inequality and discrimination, advancing equality of opportunity and promoting good relations for all. A copy of the Equality and Diversity Policy is available on the Intranet or from the Diversity Manager. You are responsible for familiarising yourself with the policy and the protected characteristics and adhering to the contents. Policies will be reviewed and updated periodically and new policies will be developed from time to time following consultation with recognised trade unions. You are responsible for familiarising yourself with policies, keeping up to date with changes and adhering to them.

I hereby confirm my agreement to the terms and conditions set out above.

Signed: Date:
(Name of Employee)

Signed: Date:
(For and on behalf of the Corporation)